Dear Mr. Anderson:

In November of 1986, I closed out a safety deposit box which I had held for a number of years. In doing so, I discovered shares of a stock which I had acquired prior to my election as a United States Representative. Since I did not realize that I had these stock certificates in my possession they have never been reported on my Financial Disclosure statements. I would, therefore, like to amend my Financial Disclosure statements for the years 1974 through 1986 to reflect the following information:

August 1974 - acquired 250 shares of National Mortgage Fund at a value falling within Category B under HOLDINGS.

November 24, 1986 - sold National Mortgage Fund shares which had been converted to 39 Parkway Co. shares at a value less than $1,000.

Thank you for your cooperation in amending these statements.

Sincerely,

Marty Russo

Each year the Kemper Open Committee invites a number of prominent figures to participate in the Pro-Am portion of our tournament. This Committee is a separate entity from the Kemper Group, and no corporate funds were used to provide any of the above-mentioned items.

As you know, a portion of the proceeds from the Kemper Open Pro-Am is donated to various charities. In 1986 a total of $125,000 was given to the following charities: Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Greater Washington; Literacy Council of Northern Virginia, Boys' Club of America; Juvenile Diabetes Foundation; Heroes, Inc.; Cabin John Volunteer Fire Department; Boy Scouts of America, National Capital Area; Girl Scout Council of the National Capital Area; Children's Hospital; Big Brothers of the National Capital Area; Maryland Sheriff's Boys' Ranch; Montgomery Hospice Society; American Diabetes Association of the National Capital Area; American Cancer Society of Montgomery County; Easter Seal Society of the National Capital Area; Holy Cross Hospital Hospice Fund; and Paul Anderson Youth Home.

We are pleased that you were able to participate in the 1986 Kemper Open Pro-Am.

Sincerely,

Ben

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Regarding my financial disclosure for 1986, page 2, I am now answering "Yes" to the question, "Do you, your spouse or dependent child receive income from or have a beneficial interest in a trust or other financial arrangement whose holdings were not reported because the trust is a 'qualified blind trust' or other excepted trust?" In previous years, I inadvertently answered "No". Specifically this is in reference to two trusts which I report as unearned income and holdings. One is the Virginia B. Anding Estate (my deceased mother-in-law), in trust with the United Missouri Bank in Kansas City, Missouri, and the other is the Carolyn B. Skelton Estate (my deceased mother), in trust with the Commerce Bank in Kansas City, Missouri. The first stated trust is composed of various stocks, bonds, and real estate, and the second trust is also composed of various stocks, bonds, and real estate.

Best regards.

Very truly yours,

IKE SKELTON
Member of Congress

Dear Sir:

By this letter, I wish to amend my Financial Disclosure Statement.

Inadvertently in"Part III. Holdings," I overlooked checking the"Trust Holdings Box".

Regarding the question in Part III -- "Do you, your spouse or dependent child receive income from or have a beneficial interest in a turst or other financial arrangement whose holdings were not reported because the trust is a "Qualified Blind Trust" or other Excepted Trust?" My answer is: NO.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Don:

As required under section II A and B, I have reported all of the actual cash received in the Earned and Unearned catagories; however I would also like to report what (under the Financial Disclosure Rule) might be considered income because the Internal Revenue Service considers it to be taxable income even though the stock interest in a Limited Partnership called Top O' the World Associates was actually sold at a cash loss. The reason the I.R.S. takes this position is that early losses of the Limited partnership were passed on to the individual limited partners for write off purpose thereby depreciating the value of the stock.

I sold the stock, for which I paid $75,000.00, on March 31, 1986 for $56,250.00, to be paid to me in monthly payments over a 2 year period beginning one month after final development plans are approved. Payment is due to begin next month.

The sale, according to the I.R.S., generated a taxable income broken down as follows:

1. Net Ordinary Income	....	15,712.00
2. Capital Gains Income	....	40,333.00

The Stock Interest in Top O' the World Associates was jointly held in the name of Gerald and Freda Solomon.

Sincerely,

GERALD B. SOLOMON

Dear Jerry and Freda:

This letter is pursuant to our discussion regarding your income from the sale of your limited partnership interest in Top-O-The-World Associates.

As a limited partner, your share of the ordinary income from the sale of your limited partnership interest was $21,788. However, you incurred additional expenses on behalf of the partnership which you paid personally in the amount of $6,076. Therefore, your net taxable income from the partnership was $15,712. In addition, your share of the capital gain on the sale of the partnership assets was $40,333. Of this amount, $16,133 was subject to tax after your long-term capital gain deduction.

If you have any other questions or need further assistance regarding the reporting of your partnership income, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

FOR THE FIRM

Re: Financial Disclosure Statement for 1986

Dear Sir:

This is in response to your inquiry about the lease with the Federal Aviation Administration reported in Item IV of my 1986 Financial Disclosure Statement.

For over twenty years, the FAA has held a lease on land owned now by me, and formerly by my father, for the operation of a radar (VORTAC) facility. When I took office in January of 1983, I informed the House Committee on Ethics and the Committee on Administration of the lease, and asked for guidance in light of the statutory provisions which prohibit members of Congress from enjoying the benefits of any contract with the federal government. Pending their advice, I returned the FAA's rental payment. The Ethics Committee advised me that I could not accept rent under the lease, even though it was made prior to my election to Congress, but that I could accept compensation in the form of damages awarded to me by a court if the FAA would institute a proceeding in condemnation to acquire the leasehold.

I advised the FAA of the opinion of the Ethics Committee, and the FAA in turn sought guidance from the Justice Department. The Justice Department advised the FAA that a judicial proceeding in condemnation, as proposed by the Ethics Committee, was appropriate. The FAA then commenced a proceeding in condemnation in the U. S. District Court for the District of South Carolina to acquire the leasehold interest in some 82 acres of land lying south of Fort Mill, South Carolina, roughly in the center of an 810-acre farm I own there. "Just compensation" for the leasehold taking was determined by the FAA, based on an updated appraisal, and I did not contest the amount the FAA determined to be fair market value, which is approximately $22,500 per year for 5 years. The matter was heard in open court before U. S. District Judge Matthew Perry in November 1986. The court held that the lease between me and the FAA was effectively terminated as of January 3, 1983, the date on which I became a Member of Congress. The court further held that I was entitled to just compensation for the taking since that date. I waived any claim to compensation exceeding the rent payable under the lease agreement between me and the FAA through its original date of expiration, except for interest on back rent as determined by the court, and accepted the increased amount, based on the updated appraisal, only after the expiration date. The Justice Department was advised of the terms of the court's decree and concurred.

Item IV reflects the full amount paid me under the terms of the court's decree, which includes compensation from 1983 through the annual term of the lease commencing October 1, 1986.

If appropriate, I would like for this letter to be filed and recorded as an addendum to my Disclosure Statement for 1986.

Please let me know if further information is required.

Yours sincerely,

John M. Spratt, Jr.

Dear Mr. Anderson:

In 1984 The Wilbert J. Tauzin Qualified Blind Trust was activated by transfer of a nominal sum ($10) into the trust. Please amend my 1984 financial disclosure as follows: Under Section III "HOLDINGS", add "Wilbert J. Tauzin Qualified Blind Trust", Category A.

Amend my financial disclosure statements for the years 1985 and 1986 as follows:

In answer to the question "Do you, your spouse or dependent child receive income from or have a beneficial interest in a trust or other financial arrangement whose holdings were not reported because the trust is a "Qualified Blind Trust" or other Excepted Trust?" I inadvertently checked no. The answer to this question should be "yes". Under Section III "HOLDINGS", please add "Wilbert J. Tauzin Qualified Blind Trust", Category A.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Anderson:

By this letter I want to amend my Financial Disclosure Statements for the years 1985 and 1986.

For 1985: Part IV. TRANSACTIONS. New acquisition: Augusta Industrial Bonds, purchased September, 1985. Category B.

Part III. HOLDINGS. Augusta Industrial Bonds, Category B.

When I listed the Augusta Industrial Bonds in the "holdings" category on my Statement for 1986, I inadvertently did not list them under the transaction category as a new acquisition. In preparing to amend the form via this letter, I checked with my wife, who purchased them, as to the date they were purchased. It was discovered she actually purchased them in September, 1985. Therefore, I should have listed them on the Statement for 1985 as a new acquisition and holding.

For 1986: Part II. INCOME. Pfizer, Inc. 7/31/87 honorarium, $1,000

Part III. HOLDINGS. Street addresses needed for the following properties: Country Club Apartments, 700 Stadium Drive, Augusta, KS; Country Hills Estates, Inc., #4 Arnold Drive, Augusta, KS; Varner Rental, 3000 N. Ohio, Augusta, KS; House owned by minor children, 913 Michelle, Emporia, KS; Country Hills Builders, Inc., #4 Arnold Drive, Augusta, KS; Prairie Enterprises of Kansas, Inc., #4 Arnold Drive, Augusta, KS; Four-plex rental, 203-209 Columbia, Augusta, KS.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bob Whittaker

Instructions

Complete this schedule and attach it to your Form 1040 if you take the deduction for a married couple when both work. You may take the deduction if both you and your spouse:

- work and have qualified earned income, and
- file a joint return, and
- do not file Form 2555 to exclude income or to exclude or deduct certain housing costs, and
- do not file Form 4563 to exclude income.

There are three steps to follow in figuring the deduction on Schedule W.

Step 1 (lines 1, 2, and 3).—Figure earned income separately for yourself and your spouse.

Earned income.—This is generally income you receive for services you provide. It includes wages, salaries, tips, commissions, sub-pay, etc. (from Form 1040, line 7). It also includes income earned from self-employment (from Schedules C and F of Form 1040 and Schedule K-1 of Form 1065), and net earnings and gains (other than capital gains) from the disposition, transfer, or licensing of property that you created.

Earned income does not include interest, dividends, social security benefits, IRA distributions, unemployment compensation, deferred compensation, or nontaxable income. It also does not include any amount your spouse paid you.

Caution: Do not consider community property laws in figuring your earned income.

Step 2 (lines 4 and 5).—Figure qualified earned income separately for yourself and your spouse by subtracting certain adjustments from earned income.

Qualified earned income.—This is the amount on which the deduction is based. Figure it by subtracting the total of certain adjustments from earned income. These adjustments (and the related lines on Form 1040) are:

- Employee business expenses (from line 25)
- IRA deduction (from line 26)
- Keogh retirement plan and self-employed SEP deduction (from line 27)
- Repayment of sub-pay included in the total on line 31. See the instructions on repayment of sub-pay on page 12 of the Form 1040 Instructions.

Enter the total of any adjustments that apply to your or your spouse's earned income in the appropriate column of line 4.

Step 3 (lines 6, 7, and 8).—Figure the deduction based on the smaller of:

- the qualified earned income entered in column (a) or (b) of line 5, whichever is less, OR
- $30,000.

Example.—You earned a salary of $20,000 and had $3,000 of employee business expenses (Form 1040, line 25). Your spouse earned $17,000 and had an IRA deduction of $1,000 (Form 1040, line 26). Your qualified earned income is $17,000 ($20,000 minus $3,000) and your spouse's is $16,000 ($17,000 minus $1,000). Because your spouse's qualified earned income is less than yours, the deduction is figured on your spouse's income. Therefore, the deduction is $1,600 ($16,000 × .10).
